

Bradley Campbell has been a member of FPCH since 2011 and since then has served the church in many ways. Brad was an elder on session from 2015 to 2018 during which time he served on the Urban Missions Committee and as Vice-Chair (2016) and Chair (2017) of the Officer Nominating Committee. He has served at the Lord's Lighthouse and for the Winter Shelter, has participated in FPCH Lent groups and led a men's small group. Brad is currently Chair of the Pastor Nominating Committee. A college professor by vocation, Brad believes deeply in the importance of theological reflection and connecting to God through the reading of scripture and other Christian writings. Brad and his wife Darla live in Pasadena.

Jesse Corti loves the Lord and loves his wife Julietta and family, including son Jesse David and daughter Avrielle. Jesse has been in the Entertainment industry for over 38 years. A long time Elder and member of FPCH, Jesse has chaired at least eight different committees of session and currently serves on the Pastor Nominating Committee. He and John Safoyan have taught the Bereans Sunday school class for over 25 years. Presently he teaches a Zoom Bible Study Class on Thursday nights that began during the pandemic back in 2020. Most recently, Jesse directed the much-loved A Christmas Carol in the FPCH sanctuary during the 2021 Christmas season!

Lloyd Wong Hansen has attended FPCH with her family all her life. She was baptized and confirmed at the church, attended Sunday school every week, and participated in all of the children's and youth choirs (choral and bells) while growing up. She has taught Sunday school and participated in mission trips with FPCH; one, to Poland to teach English to high school students and another, to Alaska to assist with opening a nursery building at a local college. She joined Cathedral Choir in 1994 and has been singing Alto since then. Lloyd currently works for a Registered Investment Advisor in Pasadena and has and continues to volunteer for local nonprofits such as Friends of the Junior Arts Center at Barnsdall Park, Villa Esperanza, and the Pasadena Tournament of Roses. This will be Lloyd's first time serving as an officer at FPCH.

Sae-Wa Leong has been a member of FPH for more than 25 years. Originally from Hong Kong, she came to the U.S. to attend CSU Fresno and after graduation, became a licensed clinical lab scientist. In 1979, she moved to Los Angeles and a church-hopping friend brought her to FPCH where she has remained since. At FPCH, she has participated in Lenten groups, Stephen Ministry and she has sung in the Hollywood Mass Choir. She is currently a group lead and facilitator for BSF International Women's group. Throughout her professional career, Sau-Wa has worked in highly specialized fields involving transfusion, DNA molecular typing, and more recently, organ transplant compatibility testing. She is currently retired but active in several Bible studies, including Irene Simmons' class at Bel Air Presbyterian. This will be Sau-Wa's first time serving as an officer at FPCH.

Rob Loos helped to launch the Entertainment Ministries at FPCH (Actor's Co-op, Inter-Mission, Act One, HPN), and served as the Chairman of the IM/AC Advisory Board for ten years. At various times he has served on the Evangelism, Missions & Outreach, and Prayer Committees of FPCH. Outside of FPCH Loos is Pres/CEO of a small production company that makes both faith-based and general market productions – firmly believing that Christian ministry extends both in front of and behind the camera. In 2018 Loos directed the award-winning documentary SALT & LIGHT – THE MIRACLE IN HOLLYWOOD that tells the story of the birth of Contemporary Christian Music and follows The Salt Company (1967-75), FPCH's groundbreaking ministry, during the JESUS MOVEMENT. Loos wrote and directed a feature film called NEVER GIVE UP!, exploring the life of deaf tennis pro Brad Minns, which will release in 2023, and he's directing a documentary on the life of Henrietta Mears called GREAT TOMORROWS. Loos and his wife Mary Anne have two grown children, and live in the Miracle Mile with their faithful cocker spaniel. Loos is currently finishing a one-year term on session, filling an unexpired term for another elder.

Kimi Walker is well-known to the FPCH community. In addition to singing in the Cathedral Choir, Kimi has served as an elder, deacon, on the ONC, at the Lord's Lighthouse, for DOOR, Young Life, VBS and more. She is probably best known as a long-time member of The Actors Co-op where she has produced and starred in numerous notable shows, earning many nominations and winning awards, among them an NAACP "Best Actor" award for The 1940's Radio Hour. She most recently produced An Evening With C.S. Lewis for Co-op Too! In addition to her work on the stage and for television and film, she is a dynamic educator who has taught Intermediate drama for LAUSD through the Gifted and Talented programs since 1998. She mentors youth in the community and has taught master classes for "The Young Storytellers Foundation."
